Kev Reynolds has spent his life in the mountains. In Abode of the Gods, eight autobiographical tales of his adventures in the Himalaya are brought to life with his classic journal writing and evocative descriptions.

From 1989 to 2012 Kev returned time and again to Nepal. He writes of some of the worlds' best known treks, such as to Everest Base Camp, the Annapurna Sanctuary and to Kanchenjunga, as well as lesser-known expeditions into the quiet and remote reaches of the world's highest mountains.

Kev's expedition stories are rich in detail and bring the far-off world of Himalayan trekking to life on every page. From describing a pristine lake to the camaraderie of sherpas and trekking companions, Abode of the Gods teems with beauty, adventure, and above all, an eternal love of the highest and wildest mountains.
