Following the River Wye for 136 miles from the mouth of the river at Chepstow to the slopes of Plynlimon in Powys, the Wye Valley offers a perfect mix of river and hill walking. Devised by the Wye Valley Walk Partnership, the walk takes up to two weeks to complete, and enjoys the superb scenery of the Wye Valley Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty.

Passing through historic Tintern, Monmouth and Ross-on-Wye, the walk is accessible throughout the year and is suitable for all walkers with a reasonable level of fitness. This official guide is full of all the information needed to fully appreciate the beauty of the area, and includes sections on the history and wildlife of the Wye, as well as on practicalities such as rights of way, country courtesy and safe walking.
